Atwood, Violett & Co.'s Cotton Report. NEW ORLEANS, La., June 27 .- Atwood, Violett & Co. say: Futures—Liverpool continues to show siderable strength, caused by the in-sed demand for spots. The opening here this morning was firm and the closing strong, with 4-64d advance on futures and 1-64@1-16d on spots, with spot sales of 12 000, which is large for a half day. Both New York and this market, in consequence of the improvement in Liverpool, opened 10 points higher, and after an advance of some to 6 points more towards the close, part of the advance was lost, due to heavy realizing then reaching here again, showing prices 10 points higher in New York and 16@17 points higher here than last night's closing. There has been con-siderable covering here during the day by weak shorts, which assisted the steady closing of this market. Owing to the early closing of our market, there is very little to note outside of the above facts. Spots closed firm. Sales 2100 bales, with quota-

Col. Wood Buried.

STRONG CITT. KAN., June 27.—The remains of Col. Sam Wood, who was shot a few days ago by James Brennan, arrived at 10 o'clock to-day accompanied by relatives of deceased and six citizens of Wooddale, who acted as an escort. There were no religious services except prayer by a Methodist minister and a few songs by the church choir. The funeral services were held in Odd Fellows hall at noon. Short addresses were made by Rev. J. M. Wood, a brother of the deceased, W. T. Hightmitte and Judge Webb of Topeka. The remains were interred at Cottonwood cemetery.

A POLITICAL TRICK.

Playing Fast and Loose with Silver Men.

DISINGENUOUS FOSTER.

The Coining of Silver Bullion the Price to be Paid for Votes in the Coming November Elections-It will Not Work.

A Political Dodge.

Special to the Gazette Washington, June 27.—The result of ves terday's cabinet meeting to discuss the silver question is a nice little political dodge. The coinage into standard silver dollars of 2,000,000 ounces of silver monthly is to be suspended for about four months, and during that time the trade dollars redeemed and melted into bars under the act of 1887 are to be made into standard dollars, and a lot of uncurrent fractional coin is to be recoined into dimes and quarters. This be recoined into dimes and quarters. This may be good politics from the point of view of the administration, but its purpose is so plain that he who runs may read. The silver men may confidently be counted upon to raise a rumpus over the cessation of bullion coinage and to threaten all sorts of reprisals upon the party responsible. About four months from now will be the eve of the fall elections. Having coined up the trade dollars, the administration can gracefully yield to the demand of the silver mer and resume the coinage of bullion, and say to the silver men that their votes are ex pected in return for resumption. This is the only explanation heard here for Secre-tary Foster's assertion that it will take about four months to coin the trade dollar bars. A little more than 5,000,000 of these dollars are to be recoined. For a long time the mints seem to have had no trouble to coin 2,000,000 ounces of bullion into more than two and a half million standard dollars every month. Secretary Foster does not explain why it will now take four months to coin $5,000,000. But the fact that elections are to be held in November explains why it is officially an-nounced that the secretary finds it to be his duty to adopt this course under the paragraph in the last sundry civil appropria-tion act, which calls for the recoinage of trade dollars into standard dollars as soon as practicable. The act of March 3, 1887, as practicable. The act of March 3, 1887, also calls for this recoinage, and the average man finds it difficult to understand how one law is any more mandatory than the other. For over four years the law has provided for turning trade dollars into standard dollars or fractional coinage, but only about $1,00,000 have been seened.

ters of the future history of Harrison's ad-Revival of Business.

standard orders of reactional collarge, but only about $1,000,000 have been so used. Now it is suddenly discovered that the remaining $5,000,000 must be coined at once, even to the stoppage of bullion coinage, and, although it must be done "as soon as practicable," four months are to be devoted to the work. This enables Secretary Foster to appropries that the reaction of the coinage of silver bullion into standard dol-lars is not now a practical question, and it gives the admistration something with which to dicker with the silver men when their services are most needed. There will be plenty of material for the financial chap-

Special to the Gamette. New York, June 27.—This was a very bad day in financial circles. There was no special reason for it apparently, except the continued heavy export of gold, and the feeling of depression which has crept over Wall street in consequence. Nearly all the active stocks showed a decline of from 16 to per cent from yesterday's closing figure. Northern Pacific preferred fell 3 points from yesterday's opening figures.

The increase in loans is indicative of some revival of general business, it is certainly not due to stock exchange dealings. The increase in deposits shows that remittances from the country continue, and are still largely in cash. Railway bonds were dull and featureless special to the Gazette. New York, June 27.-The Commercial Bulletin reports that for the week sixteen city banks have received from the interior $4,148,000, and shipped $1,032,000, a net gain of $3,106,000. Receipts have been in small amounts from the West and South. Shipments have been to neighboring cities.

Banks and Business.

The Chronicle gives a gain to the banks by the interior movement of $53.078,000 and a net gain by sub-treasury operations and gold exports $200.000, a net gain of $3.278,000. The Chronicle concludes that "easy money East and West and large bank reserves are in advance of the weakness caused by the depression in business. If there had been no gold exports trade would have been thriving and money would have been in active use." It thinks there is un-soundness in either our trade or in our currency, and reaffirms its anti-silver position The gross earnings of thirty-three roads for the third week in June increased 3.53

Special to the Gazette.

Vernon, Wilbarder County, Tex., June 27.—Yesterday a deal was closed by which the city of Vernon becomes the owner of the waterworks, ice factory and electric light plants erected here last year by a home company, assisted by a Galveston company. The price paid was $23,500. It is hoped the city will properly light and sprinkle the streets and reduce the price of ice. A large new street sprinkler has recently been purchased and it will soon be at work.

Austin, Tex., June 27.—We give herewith the remarks made by Professor Harris of Dallas at the State teachers' association in seconding the nomination of Professor Carlisle of Fort Worth for president of the association. He said:

Mr. President—When I foined this association eight years ago I found one of the most modest and unobtrusive, and yet one of the most earnest, faithful and effective workers of the whole body in the person of Superintendent J. M. Carlisle. From that day to this I have been familiar with his career as a member of this body, and as a worker in the great educational field of Texas and of the nation. During this term he has ever exhibited his characteristic traits—unpretentious but determined, earnest and unquestioned ability. He has ever been ready to give his time, his talents, his energy, his money to the interests of this association, and of every other educational movement. Yet he has never been the man to push his personal claims to the front or seem to expect any honors or remuneration for his services in this cause. I feel that this body will do credit to itself in honoring such a man, and I most heartily hope to see the presidency of this association bestowed upon the man who has so richly merited it—Superintendent, J. M. Carlisle of Fort upon the man who has so richly merited it-

CHICAGO, ILL., June 27 .- In the criminal court to-day Judge Collins quashed all counts in the indictment against George Gibson of the whisky trust, charging him with conspiracy and those for having explosives in his possession. The charge of attempting to commit the crime of blowing up the Shufeldt distillery was taken under advisement. During the argument the infernal machine which it is alleged was found in Gibson's valies when avested was found in Gibson's valise when arrested was brought into court and exhibited to the judge. It consisted of a box containing a brass tube into which a conical steel bullet was fitted and beneath it was a string of coil tow saturated with a colored liquid. There was a long, slender glass vial nearly full of a colorless liquid. To show its dangerous character a single drop of it was let fall upon a sheet of paper, which spontaneously ignited and was instantly consumed. found in Gibson's valise when arrested was

CHICAGO, HIL, June 22.—Wheat—The market was very weak to-day and though there was small reactions, they were of brief duration, and were generally followed by recessions to lower figures than before. The published accounts of the destructive storms in the West led to a little show of steadiness at the start, but the signal service reported fair weather in the winter wheat belt, and numerous private dispatches confirmed this intelligence, reporting line harvest weather. Cables, both public and private, quoted the foreign markets dull and lower with a bad outlook.

It was said there was no demand froud, and that offers and solicitations brought no bids. The weather in France is reported hot and forcing: the fact was recognized that new wheat would soon appear on the market in large quantities. To add to the demoralization, Pardicipes sold short, and a heavy line of December wheat, estimated at $1,00,000, but he recovered a large part of it on the breakhis purchases assisting subsequent milles July opened at $1,40,000, but he recovered a large part of it on the breakhis purchases assisting subsequent milles July opened at $1,40,000, but he recovered a large part of it on the breakhis purchases assisting subsequent milles July opened at $1,40,000, but he recovered a large part of it on the breakhis purchases assisting subsequent milles July opened at $1,40,000, but he received he was the time weather, the unexpected heavy receipts for the weather, the unexpected heavy receipts broke again to 89 kc, ruilied again and closed at 90 kc.

Corn was active, but decidedly weak. The fine weather, the unexpected heavy receipts and demoralization which prevailed in other grain pits, exercised a most depressing influence. The courage of hitherto most stalwart buils became exhausted, and there was an indiscriminate slaughter of long property when it was offered. No one seemed to want it, and there was an immepiate decline. July started at 52 kc, sold at 52 kc out, then shorts began to buy in to secure profits, and there was a reaction to 52 kc. Later the selling, craze again broke and, induced partly by the estimate for Monday, and July fell off to 51 kc, reacted some and closed at 51 kc.

Provisions were quiet. The opening was firm, at a slight advance over yesterday's close. There was further small appreciation, then a reaction with grains, and the close was at a medium figure, and without change compared with yesterday. 698 1,091 55,850
